LEADERSHIP

The God-given ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by casting vision, stimulating spiritual growth, applying strategies, and achieving success where God's purposes are concerned.

CHARACTERISTICS:

- They can motivate people to work together toward a common goal.
- They have confidence in their vision and know how to direct people toward the vision.
- They are naturally put into the leadership role when meeting in a group setting.
- They quickly recognize people with potential and begin to encourage those people.
- They influence people because of their character, competence and relational chemistry.
- People under their leadership sense that they are headed in a good direction.
- When necessary, they can make unpopular decisions and work through the disagreements that follow.

BIBLICAL EXAMPLES:

- Jesus in any of the Gospels
- Nehemiah (Nehemiah 2)
- The book of Joshua
- Moses led people out of Egypt (Exodus 12 & 13)

CAUTION

- Don't view people as human resources.

NOTES