

Better Days Ahead

Eagle Brook Music

I've been running from the answers
I've been blinded by the lies
But You're standing in the valley by my side

I've been held by my depression
Overwhelmed by what's to come
Even in my deepest doubting
Still You love

You're leading me on to better days ahead
You're leading me on to better days ahead
And I'll run into Your arms
Like a child that's been wandering
I'll fall into Your love
Father I'm done fighting

I've been broken into pieces
Feeling close to letting go
But I know You go before me
You're my hope

'Cause You're leading me on to better days ahead
You're leading me on to better days ahead
And I'll run into Your arms
Like a child that's been wandering
I'll fall into Your love
Father I'm done fighting

To You Jesus
I surrender all
And to You Jesus
I will bring it all
And to You Jesus
I give You my life
Lord take this life

And to You Jesus
I surrender all
And to You Jesus
I will bring it all
And to You Jesus

I give You my life
Lord take this life

You're leading me on to better days ahead
You're leading me on to better days ahead
And I'll run into Your arms
Like a child that's been wandering
I'll fall into Your love
Father I'm done fighting

And to You Jesus
I surrender all
And to You Jesus
I will bring it all
And to You Jesus
I give You my life
Lord take this life

To You Jesus
I surrender all
And to You Jesus
I will bring it all
And to You Jesus
I give You my life
Lord take this life
