READ IT!

Read Galatians 6:7-10. These verses are about how our choices affect our lives and the people around us.

Why does Paul (the writer) say good and bad choices are like planting seeds?

What are some good choices you could “plant” this week?

Build a Story!

Pick one thing from each of these three charts (one character, one place, and one thing), and create a story around the three things you picked!

PLAY IT FORWARD

Have a big decision coming up? Try answering these questions.

What are two things I could do?

If I did the first one, what could happen right away?
What could happen in a week?

If I did the second one, what could happen right away?
What could happen in a week?

Ask for wisdom from God, and ask adults you trust for their advice, too. Then make your decision!
