

DANGEROUS PRAYERS

OCT. 22/23

SEND ME

JOHN ALEXANDER

"Lord, send me," is a dangerous prayer because God may send us in directions that are uncomfortable and ask us to do things we've never done before. But it's also one of the most courageous and rewarding prayers we can ever pray—because it can take us exactly where God wants us to be.

Discussion Questions

1. Talk about a time when you had to step outside of your comfort zone. How did you feel in the midst of it? Looking back, how has God used that step of courage to impact who you are today?
2. What has been your most significant encounter with God throughout your life? What was it like? How did it shift your lifestyle or mindset moving forward?
3. Read Isaiah 6. As you think about praying, "Send me," what fears or worries arise?
4. Read Colossians 3:17. God often sends us right where he's already placed us. What makes you uniquely qualified for being sent to your home, workplace, or community?

Challenge

If you are willing to pray, God will answer. This week, commit to praying, "Here I am, send me," every day. Then, write down the people God puts on your heart throughout the week and look for opportunities to show them his love and grace.

Commit to Memory

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here I am. Send me!" Isaiah 6:8
