

Tithing really isn't about our money. It's not about giving. It's about our hearts and whether or not we really trust that God will provide for us. Tithing can seem illogical and irrational, but it's the only place in the Bible where God says, "Test me in this."

Discussion Questions

1. When it comes to money, what are your biggest stressors—that you can't make ends meet, that you aren't saving enough for retirement, that the market will crash?
2. Read Proverbs 3:9-10. In today's language, that basically means, "Trust the Lord with your money and the first part of your paycheck and then you will have plenty." Do you believe that? What is the hardest part about giving that first 10 percent of your income to God?
3. Read Malachi 3:10 and Luke 6:38. How have you seen these verses to be true in your own life? In what unexpected ways has God bless you for your faithfulness in tithing?

Challenge

God tells us to put him to the test with our finances and he will pour out his blessings. If you're not tithing, a great way to start is the 90-Day Challenge. Learn more and sign up at eaglebrookchurch.com/90daychallenge. Trust God and see what he does!
