The Week of: Jan. 13, 2021

What's your life like:

Would you rather:
clean up after Times Square confetti or after zoo animals. Why?

How is 2021 going so far?

What are we talking about this week:

This week we are continuing our series called Fundamentals. Getting the fundamentals down sets you up to do something well—like playing a sport, starting a vlog, or cooking a meal. The same is true when it comes to your faith. In this series, we'll seek answers to four fundamental questions to help you build a strong base for your faith. This week's question is, "What is sin?"

1. What stood out to you from this week's message?
2. What is a problem that you often run into?
3. What do you think of when you hear the word sin?
4. Why is sin such a big deal?
Read Romans 3:23
5. If sin is something we all have to deal with, why can it be difficult to talk about?
6. What are some reasons that we pick our own way over God's way?
Read Ephesians 1:7
7. What are some ways we try to deal with our debt of sin on our own?
8. How did Jesus pay our debt? What do we need to do to be forgiven?

Now what:

Take some time this week to reflect on how God's love for you and Jesus' sacrifice have impacted your life. Some ideas: Journal about it. Write a poem. Sing a worship song. Write God a letter thanking him. Tell someone about it!
