The Week of: Feb. 10, 2021

What's your life like?

- What's better: The Super Bowl or the commercials?
- What are your thoughts about Valentine's Day?

What are we talking about this week?

Even if you try to avoid them, some issues in middle school just show up. Peer pressure, romance, doubt—we're tackling them all in series. Because if you aren't dealing with these yet, they're definitely on approach! This week we'll talk about how to approach romance.

Key verses: Song of Songs 8:4, Ephesians 6:2-3, 1 Corinthians 6:18-20, Psalm 37:4

1. What stood out to you from this week's message?
2. What do you think of when you hear the word "romance"?
3. What are some of the risks of having romantic relationships before we are ready?
4. What are some ways to know if you are ready for romantic relationships?
5. Have you talked to your parents about when the right time for romantic relationships is? If so, what did they say? If not, what do you think they would say?
6. What are some ways you can focus on having a strong relationship with God? What difference can this make when it comes to romantic relationships?
7. What are some examples of God-honoring decisions about sex?

Now what?

What are some ways you can "take delight in the Lord" this week?
Talk to your parents and ask them to share about their experiences with romance!
Chances are they know a lot that could help you approach this topic.
