

FOSSIL FINDERS

Hey Families!

Have you ever seen a fossil? It's a rock, made from something that lived thousands of years ago. In this series, we'll be digging up some stories of how people followed God thousands of years in the past. Join us as we discover artifacts, cross deserts, and see why the rules God gives us are important, even three thousand years later!

Feb. 16/17: Exodus 20

Big Idea: God's rules are good.

Talk about it: What are some important rules to follow? (You could talk about rules that keep us safe.)

Feb. 23/24: Exodus 32

Big Idea: God is the greatest.

Talk about it: What are some great things God has done? (He made our world, He cares about us, and He leads us every day.)

Mar. 2/3: Numbers 12

Big Idea: I can respect leaders.

Talk about it: What does "respect" mean? (Listening to someone and being kind to them, especially people who are in charge.)

Mar. 9/10: Joshua 7

Big Idea: I can be happy with what I have.

Talk about it: What could we be thankful for today? (Our family, our home, and God!)

Mar. 16/17: Joshua 23-24

Big Idea: I can choose to follow God's rules.

Talk about it: What are some rules God gives us to follow? (Be kind to others, don't cheat or steal, don't hurt others.)

Memory Verse:

Obey the Lord's commands and rules.
Deuteronomy 10:13

Hey Parents!

Try these activities during meal time, play time, drive time, and bed time to help your kids connect what they're learning in church to their everyday life.

Meal Time:

Talk about how God gave us all the things we have, like a home, and food. Talk about how amazing His love is for every one of us!

Drive Time:

Talk about why it's important to follow the rules of the road, like street lights, stop signs, and speed limits. Talk about other rules that are important to follow, too!

Play Time:

Create a pretend game of your own, with three rules. You could make everyone in the game talk super slowly, or make the rule that no one can touch the ground!

Bed Time:

Talk about how God helped you during the day. Pray, and thank God for leading and helping your family.
