

The Week of: March 10, 2021

What's your life like?

When's the Last Time...

- Go around the group and ask each person to tell a story about the last time they (fill in the blank).
- Story Prompts: Went ice skating, went to a professional sports event, went on a date, ate fast food, read a book, drew a picture, talk to someone on the phone.
- This game is helpful to get people talking, sharing stories, and getting to know one another.

What are we talking about this week?

Bible Verse

Luke 24:13-35

Main Point of the Message

We're all searching for certainty, and it can be found when we learn to search our sadness and seek out Christ-centered community.

Discussion Questions

- When was the last time you ate at Chipotle? What's your go-to order there?
- Do you ever have a hard time making up your mind? Can you give some examples?
- What has been canceled in the last year that was really hard to accept?
- Why do you think the friends from Emmaus were kept from recognizing Jesus?
- What do you do when you feel sad? Do you share it, avoid it, ignore it, or bury it?
- What kind of friends do you need around you when you're searching for certainty?
- Has a friend ever shown you Jesus' love? Have you ever been that friend? What was it like?
- How can a small group make an impact on your search for certainty?

Now what?

Seek Surrender

If you've joined a small group, commit to it for the end of the year. Be present while you're at group. Be honest about what you're going through. Ask questions. Be supportive. And seek Jesus in your community.
